

2015 Hitotsubashi International Conference

Subject: “Women in Chosŏn and Colonial Korea”

June 5 (Friday), 2015

Hitotsubashi University, East Campus
LS/CGE Building(国際研究館) 5階 ML 会議室

9:30-9:45 Greetings

Hirobumi Sakai (Dean, Graduate School of Language and Society, Hitotsubashi University)

The First Session
9:45-12:15

Chair: Nam-lin Hur (The University of British Columbia)

Presenters:

Sangik Hwang (Seoul National University)

“Childbirth in Chosŏn Korea”

Younghui Kim (Yonsei University)

“The Making of Gendered Body in Oral Epics in Chosŏn Korea”

Jongseong Choi (Seoul National University)

“Women Worshipped as a Living Buddha in Late Chosŏn Korea”

Discussants:

Hiroko Sakamoto (Hitotsubashi University)

Jiyoung Suh (The University of British Columbia)

Muyoung Park (Yonsei University)

12:15-13:45 Lunch

The Second Session
13:45-16:15

Chair: Muyoung Park (Yonsei University)

Presenters:

Sukman Jang (The Korea Institute for Religion and Culture)

“Changing Attitudes toward ‘Wailing’ in Colonial Korea”

Yerim Kim (Yonsei University)

“The Shattered Dream of Revolution and the Semantics of Love in the Late 1930s”

Jun Yoo (The University of Hawaii)

“Fashioning Identities: The Department Store and Consumer Culture in Colonial Korea”

Discussants:

Helen Lee (Yonsei University)

Yeonsook Song (Aoyama Gakuin University)

Hyunjoo Kim (Yonsei University)

16:15-16:30 Tea Break

The Third Session: Wrap-up Discussion
16:30-18:00

Chair: Hyunjoo Kim (Yonsei University)

